A Good Year for the Roses/I'll Follow You Up to Our Cloud/Playing Possum/Try/Going Life's Way/I Know/Divorce or Destroy/Loving Makes You Mine/A Day in the Life of a Fool/Never Grow Cold

It looks like a good year for the Joneses! George had a winner in A Good Year for the Roses, the song that leads off his new collection, and his wife Tammy Wynette continues her spectacular career as the First Lady of country music. In fact, she wrote one of the finest songs George sings here, Going Life's Way, and joined him in the composition of two more, I Know and Never Grow Cold. That's real country togetherness, as rewarding for their fans as it is for them. George himself is at the top of his form, performing with warmth and sincerity, searching out the heart of a song with winning directness. He selected this program with love, and you can be sure that that's the way he sings it.

The New 1925 Musical Production supervised by Busby Berkeley

Overture/Too Many Rings Around Rosie/I've Confessed to the Breeze/Call of the Sea/I Want to Be Happy/No, No, Nanette/Peach On the Beach/I Want to Be Happy (Reprise)/Tea for Two/You Can Dance With Any Girl/Finaletto, Act II/Entr'acte/Telephone Girlie/"Where-Has-My-Hubby-Gone" Blues/Waiting for You/Take a Little One-Step/Finale

Boy gets girl. All's well with Nanette and the world in one of the happiest musicals since 1925.

It's "No, No, Nanette." Back on Broadway after 45 years. With tap dances. Soft shoes. Buck and wings. Ruby Keeler. Bobby Van. Songs like Tea For Two and I Want To Be Happy. And all supervised by Busby Berkeley, himself.

Douglas Watt said in the Daily News, "... a roaring audience took it as if Broadway were having its last fling..." And in The New York Times, Walter Kerr said, "It occurs to me that everyone in town will have to see 'No, No, Nanette' twice because the performers couldn't possibly provide all the encores that are wanted at any one show..."

But you can hear them all on the original cast recording.

Let your heart be the judge.

B.B. King Live in Cook County Jail

201681 . . . $4.98 An ABC Record

Introductions/Every Day I Have the Blues/How Blue Can You Get/Worry, Worry, Worry/ Medley: Three O'Clock Blues/Darlin' You Know I Love You/Sweet Sixteen/The Thrill Is Gone/Please Accept My Love

Like Johnny Cash and June Carter, Moms Mabley and other stars before him, B. B. King recently took his artistry behind prison walls to entertain the inmates. "He was there only to play," noted Billboard in its Spotlight Review of this recording. "He brought his band, and naturally the house came down on top of him. B. B. King has done it again!" And Rolling Stone, after noting the album's "great moments", added "The guitar playing on 'Cook County' is as good as the man ever plays: he is in top form from beginning to end. Another treat is the drumming by... Sonny Freeman... he has no equal."

How's that for a send-off? Raves from the trade and the underground, and a swift climb up the best-seller charts! And believe us, it's all deserved—wait until you hear the album!
